

eSafety Commissioner

Questions on Notice taken at the 17 October hearing

1. Have you received any advice from the AGS on the process of takedown notices and whether or not – and how – you should factor in the implied right of political communication under the Constitution?

Response:

eSafety has not sought advice from AGS on the take down notice process.