Public hearings: Implications of removing refundable franking credits

Issued: 4 March 2019

Victoria public hearings announced for franking credits inquiry

The House of Representatives Standing Committee on Economics will hold public hearings in Malvern, Brighton, Mount Martha and Torquay, Victoria, for its inquiry into the implications of removing refundable franking credits.

The Chair of the committee, Mr Tim Wilson MP, said ‘the committee continues to gather evidence about how the removal of refundable franking credits would affect investors, particularly senior Australians whose financial security could be compromised.’

Mr Wilson said ‘the committee has received well over 1000 submissions, including many from retirees who are concerned they will be forced on to the aged pension if the ability to claim a refund on their franking credits is removed.’

Mr Wilson said ‘These hearings will provide an opportunity for Australians impacted by a change to refundable franking credits to address the committee directly with a three minute statement, and we welcome their contributions and participation’.
