

4 April 2013

The Great Barrier Reef is in peril from inappropriate decisions regarding ports and land use along the Queensland coast. Please stop all development or we risk the international embarrassment of the delisting of the Reef as a World Heritage Area, because its ecological integrity will have been severely compromised

Kind regards
Susan Quinnell