MEDIA RELEASE

Senate Education and Employment Legislation Committee

Jobs and Skills Australia Bill 2022

Issue date: 2 August 2022

Call for submissions

The Senate Education and Employment Legislation Committee is calling for submissions to its inquiry into the provisions of the Jobs and Skills Australia Bill 2022 by 23 September 2022.

The bill seeks to establish a new statutory agency—Jobs and Skills Australia—to provide advice on current and emerging skills and training needs of workers and employers.

The committee's inquiry will also address the provisions of the associated Jobs and Skills Australia (National Skills Commissioner Repeal) Bill 2022, which repeals the National Skills Commissioner Act 2020.

If you would like to make a submission you may find it helpful to read the guide to making a submission available on the Senate website: Preparing a submission to an inquiry.

If you require special arrangements to enable you to make a submission to the inquiry, or if you have questions, or need more time to write your submission, please contact the Education and Employment committee secretariat.

Further information about the inquiry is available on the committee website.
