

Question: Financial services remediation programs

1. Is EY contracted to any bank, superannuation fund, or other financial services provider in relation to Royal Commission remediation programs where EY also audited that entity within the last ten years?

Answer:

1. EY has reviewed our engagements related to remediation arising from the Financial Services Royal Commission into Misconduct in the Banking, Superannuation and Financial Services Industry, and has not identified any engagements where EY is currently, or has been in the last ten years, the statutory auditor of that that bank, superannuation fund or financial services provider.
