Question: Are the financial payments (89% of Jobsearch) made to people in community detention by the department included in the $15.734 million stated in Question 42?
(Supplementary to Question 44)

Answer: As noted in response to Question 50, the cost of the community detention program for the 2010-11 financial year was $17.3 million. This total includes financial payments made to people in community detention.