

Sir,

I have applied for a 175 subclass visa in 2008 . Since my trade is not in the critical list or processing priority, I am waiting. Raising an amount to apply for this visa itself was too high for me. Axing all visa applications will make my life miserable . I was depending totally on this since 2.5 years . I have cancelled lot of better jobs that I had got hoping that I will get the visa .

Kindly understand my feelings and please look for an alternative option for matching critical work requirements of Australian.

Thanks & Regards

Thomas, Shyju
