

I believe that league tables will have a negative impact on teachers, parents and children. It is especially denigrating of those wonderful teachers who work in remote or poorer communities to improve the life of children. I am critical of using this method of bullying communities and teachers. A very poor substitution to spending money to improve educational and community outcomes.