

QUESTIONS ON NOTICE

---

Treasury Laws Amendment (Design and Distribution Obligations and Product Intervention Power) Bill 2018

From: Senator Chris Ketter, Deputy Chair

To: Department of Treasury

Can Treasury please provide:

1. A list of all stakeholder who made submissions to the second round of exposure draft legislation related to Treasury Laws Amendment (Design and Distribution Obligations and Product Intervention Power) Bill 2018 (which ran from 20 July 2018 to 15 August 2018).
2. Electronic copies of all submissions related to the prior question. If permission has not yet been given by submitters indicating permission for their submission to be made public, can Treasury please contact each submitter and establish how they would like their submission to be treated. As much as possible, submissions given in response to this question should be given on the expectation that they be made public, but if necessary, the committee can consider receiving some submissions on a confidential basis."

(Reference <https://treasury.gov.au/consultation/c2018-t312297/> )

Subject: RE: Senate Economics Committee: Questions on Notice
Date: Friday, 5 October 2018 4:08:17 PM

---

Thank you for your email concerning the Treasury Laws Amendment (Design and Distribution Obligations and Product Intervention Power) Bill 2018.

The submissions that Senator Ketter has referred to in his question in relation to the Bill were recently published on the Treasury website – the link to these submissions can be found here. Treasury received 34 submissions in response to the second round of consultation on the Bill, of which 4 were received in confidence.

Additionally, while not the subject of Senator Ketter's request, we note that submissions in response to the first round of consultation on the Bill can be found here. Treasury received 41 submissions in response to this round of consultation, of which 5 were received in confidence.

If you have any further questions please do not hesitate to get in touch.

Kind regards,

Principal Adviser
Consumer and Corporations Policy Division
The Treasury | Level 5, 100 Market Street SYDNEY NSW 2000
✉ GPO Box 89 SYDNEY NSW 2000

---