

My name is Christopher Lam, I am a software engineer and Australian citizen by birth, and I wish to express my support for this bill. This bill is important to me because it seeks to prohibit government funding to coal-fired power plants. I also support the bill because it provides mechanisms to transition workers out of coal-based employment to other areas.