

I am a Telstra shareholder and I oppose the break-up of Telstra as I feel this will be to the detriment to Telstra shareholders.

I can't see Singapore forcing SINGTEL to allow Telstra into that country on such terms so as to provide so called competition.

There appears to be ample telco competition here .

Regards,

Ken Bundgaard