Agency: Australian Competition and Consumer Commission
Reference: Written
Senator: Lidia Thorpe
Date: 8 September 2025

Question:

1. Has a labelling regime for PFAS content in consumer products, to give consumers the power of choice, been considered? [by the Commonwealth government – any agency – to the best of your knowledge]

Answer:

1. The ACCC is not aware of any consideration of a PFAS content labelling regime at the Commonwealth level, nor has the ACCC considered the question.
