

I like millions of other Australians live on the coast and I am worried about sea rises and the extreme rises of flood insurance. My insurance has risen 60% over 2 years.

Our generation needs to greatly cut our pollution levels and that means serious government action.

Paul Stephen