

I am 75 years of age. I have worked all my life until I retired and paid my taxes. I am not a wealthy person. The fact that I have been able to claim franking credits within my super fund has been of great benefit and helps me to survive. I will be very distressed if I cannot continue to claim franking credits.