

---

I'm keen that Australia shows leadership on climate change internationally. I have no doubts that the change is 'man-made'. I worry for my children and grandchildren. I despair of 'climate sceptics' in politics. The more action the better to deal with fossil fuel burning - lets move fast towards sustainable and safe energy sources and become world leaders.

Ric Day