

Submission on the Objective of Superannuation

Besides the objectives for superannuation stated in the legislation that was recently considered by both the Lower House and the Senate, the objective of superannuation should be broadened to encompass: to ensure that people are able to contribute to superannuation to allow them a comfortable retirement income and secure a dignified retirement lifestyle for their remaining years.