

Dear Sir/Madam. considering that eight of the eleven members of the Taskforce represented banks.it was no surprise that inquiry led to nothing important I am 83 and can't travel very far ,therefore I wish of having a REAL bank in the post office I do not trust digital banking or have any use for it. I think a REAL bank would also bring Australia FORWARD and will be of benefit to everyone .

Respectfully : Leopold Poppenberger