

PARLIAMENT OF AUSTRALIA

MEDIA RELEASE

Senate Education and Employment References Committee

Inquiry into disruption in Australian school classrooms

Issue date: 29 November 2022

Call for submissions

The Senate Education and Employment References Committee is calling for submissions to its inquiry into disruption in Australian school classrooms by Friday, 31 March 2023.

The inquiry will examine the issue of disruption in Australian school classrooms and its impact on students and their ability to develop essential foundational skills to reach their full educational, economic, and social potential.

The committee is due to report on the first sitting day in July 2023.

If you would like to make a submission you may find it helpful to read the guide to making a submission available on the Senate website: Preparing a submission to an inquiry.

If you require special arrangements to enable you to make a submission to the inquiry, or if you have questions, or need more time to write your submission, please contact the Education and Employment committee secretariat.

Further information about the inquiry, including the terms of reference, is available on the committee's website.
