Public Submission 25 June 2021 Submitting Person: Dianne Nolan For The Australian Parliamentary Standing Committee on Public Works (PWC) Due 21 July 2021 To Committee Secretariat Parliamentary Standing Committee on Public Works PO Box 6021 Parliament House Canberra A C.T. 2600 Dear All Please consider putting buildings at Macquarie Island Station onto platforms that raise and lower according to sea level variations to avoid inundation. · Advanced engineering would suggest internal deep pleis that bring the building up to a safe level using automactic data collecting from sea levels · Multiple moveable access stairs and lamps will be beneficial additions to the buts and buildings. · sea movements could be captured to generate energy-electricity to supply the buildings with a constant supply, supporting the saising and lowering of the buildings in the first instance. Yours sincerely,