

Please introduce into law a bill requiring a 10 cent (or higher) deposit on all drink containers. This would reduce litter and increase recycling.

I fail to see why there is any argument against this. The argument about cost is ridiculous as you get your money back when you return the container.

Iain Jenkins