TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

The present government was not elected to ratify any trade deals that are in Australia's worst interest. There was no mandate on this issue. The Prime Minister has only a thirty percent approval rate at the moment so does not have the support of a majority.

Investors will take precedence over the Australian people who pay your salaries. China will have the right to sue Australia if their investment is harmed. Insanity!
Chinese workers will be brought in who may not adhere to our work conditions or safety standards.
The environment, the Australian people and their working conditions are what you should be working for in Canberra.

As Barnaby asked, "Has the world (or our politicians?) gone mad?"

They are dealing with people's lives and well being. They are not corporate employees.

Thanking you
