

Universities Australia's response to questions on notice – public hearing for the inquiry into the quality of governance at Australian higher education providers (12 August 2025)

QUESTION 1

Senator FARUQI: What is the relationship between the University Chancellors Council and Universities Australia? Does UA fund UCC?

Mr Sheehy: The University Chancellors Council and Universities Australia have a strong working relationship. There's no legal structure that binds us, but Universities Australia, on behalf of individual universities, levy some funds to support the work of that council each year.

Senator FARUQI: Could you tell us how much?

UNIVERSITIES AUSTRALIA'S RESPONSE

Universities Australia levied its 39 member universities $3,000 each in financial year 2024-25 to support the work of the University Chancellors Council.
