

People with Disability Australia

Answer to question taken on notice at a public hearing on 15 March 2024

- On 15 March 2024 I gave evidence to the Legal and Constitutional Affairs Legislation Committee on behalf of People with Disability Australia.
- During the hearing I stated the that:
 - In terms of the terminology that we proposed, that was from a report written by Rosemary Kayess, who is the newly appointed Disability Discrimination Commissioner in Australia. I'm happy to forward that through, and that would explain why that's the terminology that she prefers, which differs from what the disability royal commission chose for their terminology. I'll make a note to send that through.
- I am unable to provide a copy of the report as it is currently unpublished. However, I understand that the final version of the report does not include the terminology 'nominated supporter' and 'appointed supporter'.
