

Dear Committee members,

I feel very strongly about the ill effects of incarcerating indigenous young people and urge you to follow another more productive course. Too many of them see gaol as a rite of passage . this mindset must be broken and other means of taking them out of their environment and giving them training and then real jobs must be found.

Maureen Keady