

Dear Sir,

As a shareholder in Telstra, I am concerned that the proposed draconian legislation regarding the possible forced break up of a private company, namely Telstra, is not in the best interests of Australia, the telecommunications field, nor of the shareholders.

Yours faithfully,
Beryl Mary Casling