

Australian Government

Australian Government response to the Senate Economics
References Committee report:

Financial and tax practices of for-profit aged care providers.

SEPTEMBER 2024

Response to the recommendations

Australian Government response

The Government notes this recommendation. However, given the passage of time since this report was tabled, in November 2018, a substantive Government response is no longer appropriate.