

Commonwealth Commissioner for Children and Young People Bill 2010

This bill is vital to ensure fair treatment of juvenile asylum seekers. They are now often held in immigration detention centres and similar secure premises and consequently psychologically damaged.

Please register my deep concern and strong message of support for the bill.

George Winston AM