

respected sir/ madam,

i came to australia in 2008 and finished my studies in the end of 2009 as a cook. then i filed PR .As i was sponsored by my brother who is australian citizen and a chef .i look upto my brother and i want to be a chef as well.during these two years i learned a lot about spanish cooking as i am working at Robert burns hotel till now .i am confused by this new bill coming into effect .as i had :

1. sponsorship: brother(citizen)

2.ielts: 7.5bands

3.experience:more than 2 years(cook/chef).

waiting to get pr so i can apply for full time job as chef somewhere.

so I request you to take care of my aspirations to be a chef in australia get fulfilled and give some credit to people with favourable characteristics an advantage in getting PR.

THX .
