

PARLIAMENTARY JOINT STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE NATIONAL DISABILITY INSURANCE SCHEME

MEDIA RELEASE

14 September 2022

Committee to inquire into the NDIA

The Joint Standing Committee on the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) will inquire into the capability and culture of the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA), Committee Chair Libby Coker MP said today.

“The inquiry into the NDIA is in addition to the committee’s ongoing responsibility to inquire into the implementation, performance, governance, administration and expenditure of the NDIS,” Ms Coker said.

“The committee has recently called for submissions from the community in relation to both inquiries. We look forward to receiving the community’s contributions.

“Members understand that the testimony of people with lived experience is crucial to identifying and improving the operation of the scheme and the NDIA.

“That’s why we will be conducting public hearings and taking the inquiries to locations across the nation, including regional areas.”

The inquiries are the first the committee will undertake during the 47th Parliament. Subsequent inquiries are under consideration in the context of disability sector priorities and government reform.

NDIS General Issues Inquiry
