

I support the HRAD Bill, I recommend it to be passed in this Parliamentary term. LGBTI people should be protected from discrimination simply because they are human beings, that reason alone is enough.

I support the prohibition on discrimination in religious care services,
I recommend religious organisations, including in aged care, should not be allowed to discriminate against employees
All Government funded services should be restricted from discriminating, including religious organisations