Joint Committee of Public Accounts and Audit

New inquiries

Issue date: 28 June 2018

Public Accounts Committee commences new inquiries

The Joint Committee of Public Accounts and Audit has commenced inquiries into several areas of public sector governance, performance and accountability as part of its examination of Auditor-General's reports.

Committee Chair Senator Dean Smith said the JCPAA scrutinises the governance, performance and accountability of Commonwealth agencies, to examine whether public money is used in an efficient, effective, economical and ethical manner.

"As Parliament's joint public administration committee, the JCPAA has an important role in holding Commonwealth agencies to account," Senator Smith said.

The Committee has commenced the following inquiries based on audit reports, focused on:

- Commonwealth Financial Statements
- Defence First Principles Review and Naval Construction
- Australian Government Funding—Schools and Indigenous Health
- Australian Government Security Arrangements—Personnel Security and Domestic Passenger Screening
- Mental Health in the Australian Federal Police
- Foreign Investment Obligations in Residential Real Estate

The Committee examines all reports of the Auditor-General tabled in the Parliament and can inquire into any items, matters or circumstances connected with these reports.

The Committee invites submissions to the inquiries, addressing the terms of reference. Public hearings will be held from August 2018. Further information about the inquiries can be accessed via the Committee's website.
