

Australian
Nursing & Midwifery
Accreditation Council

ANMAC SKILLS ASSESSMENT DIRECT CARE OCCUPATIONS FACT SHEET 2023

The Australian Nursing & Midwifery Accreditation Council (ANMAC) supports the Australian Government's Aged Care Industry Labour Agreement by providing skills assessments for overseas carers to work in Australia's aged care sector. These assessments will assist the Department of Home Affairs in determining a worker's suitability for migration.

ANMAC will accept applications for:

ANZSCO 423312

Nursing Support
Worker

ANZSCO 423313

Personal Care
Assistant

ANMAC'S DIRECT CARE OCCUPATION SKILLS ASSESSMENT REQUIREMENTS:

Accepted qualifications include overseas nursing qualifications where completion of the course has led to professional nursing registration in that same country. Complete transcripts and registration verification are mandatory requirements. If not nursing specific, courses in a relevant field with a minimum 6-month duration and 120 hours practical experience may be considered.

Where there is no relevant qualification, ANMAC will consider 12 months fulltime work as an aged care worker. Evidence of this is required, and all claims will be verified.

ID REQUIREMENTS:

Passport

Photo

2 other forms of ID

* with at least one additional form of photo identification

CONTACT US

Monday to Friday
10am-4pm AEST
+ 61 2 6257 7960 or
skilledmigration@anmac.org.au

Scan the QR code to find more information
on direct care codes,
including the checklist
and applications

ANMAC reserves the right to request further documentation to support your qualification and work experience claims. You will be notified by email if additional information is required.