

The Senate Legal and Constitutional Affairs Committee,
Canberra,

This is to express the potential danger associated with the above bill.

For the following reasons this bill should be rejected:

It undermines free speech, freedom of religion, freedom of association and natural justice. which will all bring unnecessary grief and non productive strife, while breaking the freedom we presently enjoy.
Thank for your response to this emergency.

Kind regards
Sibon Apile