

The ABC

I am shocked by the recent decisions of the ABC to further limit its' ability to full fill its responsibilities to the Australian public. The specialist programs about Science and the Arts are already minimal and the production of drama programs seem to have disappeared apart from the few works that are given to outside companies to produce. Please, please don't let our only public broadcaster be further diminished.

Joan MacLean