

To whom it may concern,

This is just a short submission to say:

1. I agree with and fully support a deposit system;
2. the proceeds of such a scheme could inject significant funds into environmentally and/or socially beneficial programs;
3. I believe that the majority of spending on such drink bottles is optional spending and so it should not be a unreasonable burden to people.

Regards,

Greg Hardy