Have your say on the Seasonal Worker Programme

The deadline has been extended for submissions to the Joint Standing Committee on Migration inquiry into the Seasonal Worker Programme.

The committee is particularly interested to hear from individuals and organisations who have participated in the Programme and would like to encourage all stakeholders who either administer or participate in the employment scheme to share their experiences.

Submissions will now be accepted until Friday 31 July 2015.

As part of the inquiry, the committee will be focusing on the role of seasonal workers in the horticulture industry and investigate whether the program should be expanded to include other countries and sectors.
