Dear Senator,

Migration Amendment (visa capping) Bill 2010

My name is Fukra Sharma. I'm been in Australia from last five years. I'm working as a chef now after doing a kitchen hand job for a long time. I'm planning to open my own restaurant and the work has been done for that. I applied for my Permanent Residency one and half years back. I'm waiting for my file to open every single moment and I'm very close to it. When my friends told me about this bill, I was totally shocked. This will not only affect me but also to my family too. I've two kids and they are totally mixed up with Australian culture. My position is like that me and my family can't leave this country. It will be very hard to do that. I never had gone back even once to my country since I came here. For my kids my country would be very strange to them.

Please I'm requesting you to don't approve this bill.

Thank you so much for this opportunity to submit my views.

Best Regards,
Fukra Fukarpanthi Sharma
