Australians like to keep everybody happy, and everybody enjoying a fair go.....but there's a whole lot of people who don't take in this case. An aggressive thrust from a politically-correct same-sex minority should not be the concept and sanctity of traditional marriage, which has always been regarded as the foundation on which well-ordered, safe and stable society is built. Don't give in to this demand.

sure that you do vote when your ballot papers arrive in your hands. Though it's a voluntary to not vote is to effectively allow parliamentarians to think that you don't care about the the ballot. Ensure that you clearly mark your ballot so that you are voting "NO" to any change to the current Marriage Act.
