

I was quite disturbed to read that the Gouvernement intends to extend the NT intervention by a further 10 years.

This was a law that took away dignity and individual freedoms.
More collaboration, training opportunities and education would assure 'Stronger Futures' with more positive outcomes than the type of control suggested.

Anne Holder