

This was a law that took away dignity and individual freedoms. More collaboration, training opportunities and education would assure 'Stronger Futures' with more positive outcomes than the type of control suggested.

Anne Holder