

From:
Naplan
Nina Gibbs

I worked in a school where Standard Australian English was the student's third language. The data from the Naplan tests do not support these students. These students are placed in 'red' because they cannot speak SAE proficiently.