

I disagree the visa capping bill. As a 485 visa holder, I have lived in Australia for a long time from years ago as a student till now as your Australia Temporary Resident. I do part-time job, full time job and pay tax even go to Queensland regional place to work. I make a lot contribution to your country then I get sponsorship from the Queensland government. I love Australia, I love the job in your regional place.