

From:
To:
Subject: ARENA
Date: Friday, 2 September 2016 6:56:58 PM

Every countries going forward in renewables in the world. Australia is going backwards. This Government was elected on jobs and growth but have given away Australia's advantage in Green Technology.

I have just read a report on the Liberals Direct Action policy. It shows most companies have put carbon reduction on the back burner. We are already paying for a failed policy. Renewable energy is affirmative action and once again this government is turning their back on it if the cuts to ARENA go ahead
