

RE: Senate Environment and Communications Committee - Public hearing, Hobart
1 February 2013

Senator Cameron asked me today for the name of a media theorist I refereed to - Joshua Meyrowitz. He and I both have essays in a new book on mobile communication titled Mobile Technology and Place, ed. Rowan Wilken and Gerard Goggin (London: Routledge, 2012). If Sen Cameron wants to follow up on Meyrowitz's work then a useful starting point is his "The Generalized Elsewhere", Critical Studies in Mass Communication, vol. 6, no. 3 (1989), pp. 326–334 or 'The Rise of Glocality New Senses of Place and Identity in the Global Village', in A Sense of Place: The Global and the Local in Mobile Communication, ed. Nyiri, Kristof (Vienna: Passagen, 2005), pp.21-30.

Thanks again for the opportunity to meet with the Committee today.

Best
Jeff
