

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to express my concerns about the possibility of the Northern Territory Intervention being continued for ten years into the future.

This goes against the wishes and expressed concerns of Aboriginal people across the Territory and will lead to more disempowerment and despair. Please do what you can to find an alternative solution that is empowering and respectful to the communities who live in NT.

Regards,

Lucy Ridsdale