
Dear Economics References Committee

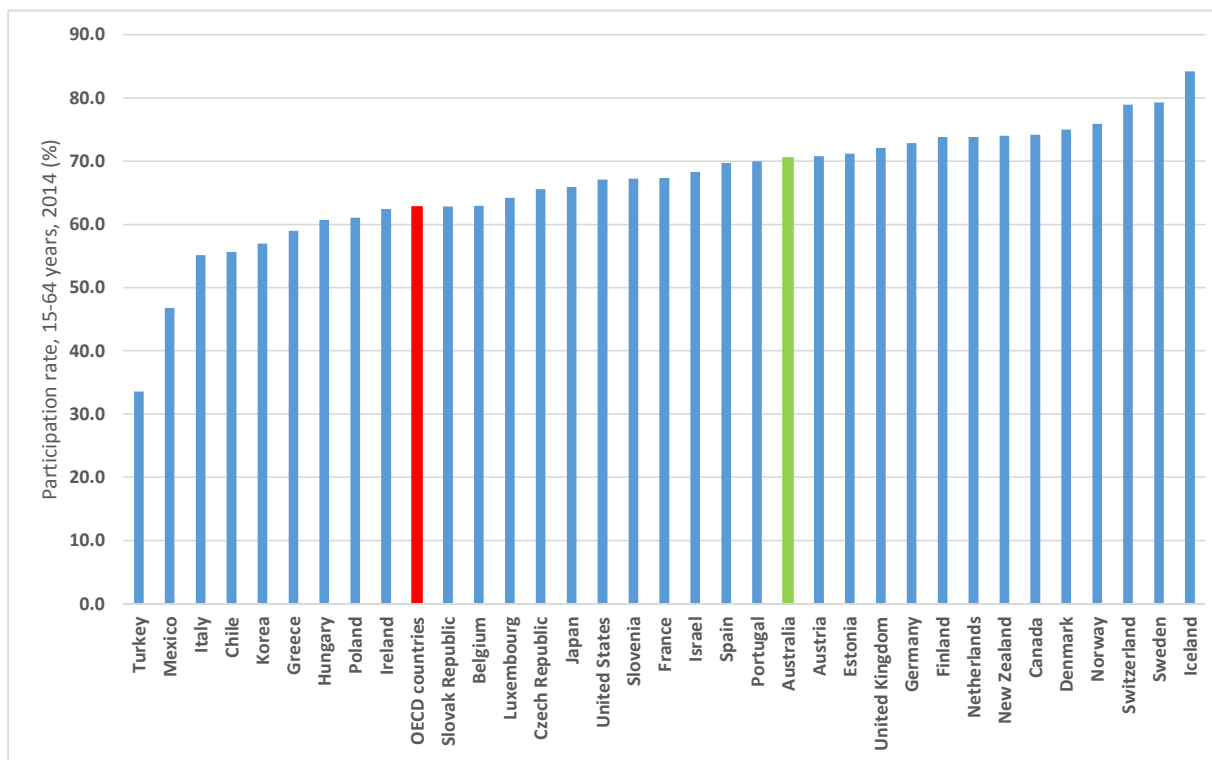

I refer to the public hearing on 12 Feb 2016 held in Sydney in relation to the Economic Security for Women in Retirement Inquiry.

At the hearing, the Hon Susan Ryan AO, Age and Disability Discrimination Commissioner undertook to provide the Committee with international statistics in relation to female labour force participation rates to inform its deliberations.

Please find attached annual OECD data on participation rates for males, females and persons aged 15-64 years (latest annual data are for 2014). The included chart focusing on the female participation rate across OECD countries shows that Australia's female labour force participation rate was 70.5 per cent in 2014, above the OECD average of 62.8 per cent.
