

Dear Sir We wish to appeal to your selves on behalf of the Aboriginal people of the Northern territories that there be further consultation on the Stronger futures bill with the Aboriginal people so that they can shape their own future and not be pushed aside by bureaucratic and unfair legislation. Australia as a modern forward looking country should not be instigating legislation that disempowers people especially an idigenous populatioh that has a deep connection to the land

Yours Sincerely John Fraser