

Australian Government

Australian Government response to the Senate Select Committee report:

Obesity Epidemic in Australia: Final Report.

SEPTEMBER 2024

Response to the recommendations

Australian Government response

The Government notes this recommendation. However, given the passage of time since this report was tabled, in December 2018, a substantive Government response is no longer appropriate.