

To it may concern,

Hi my name is javed iqbal. I arrived in perth wa around more than two and half years ago as a student I completed my study and apply to permanent residence in December 2009 after a long struggle to pass IELTS exam.

I spent lot of money to pay my fee, time, emotion, struggle, effort, to be come on this stage that I can be a Australian but this heart taking news took my breath I didn't eat since I listen this bad news which is totally unfair.

Now Australia become my dream land now where I can take a breath, see the dreams, now it is my real home now please don't put axe on my dream I can't show my feeling that I am crying to write it down this email. Please don't do this to me, I really want to stay till my whole life here.

Please, please, please, please, please, please, please let me stay in Australia please!!!!!!!

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Kinds and regards,

Javed Iqbal.
