

Nicola Roxon's proposed bill will deny free speech and undermine the free speech and freedom of religion we have in this country. Is this her true agenda, aim? Religious bodies being forced to act against their religious beliefs as would be the case were this bill to become law is un Australian and discriminatory in itself.

I request the bill be defeated in its present form

sgd john pfeiffer